LEGEND SERIES

Culture Introduction:
An ancient and mysterious culture

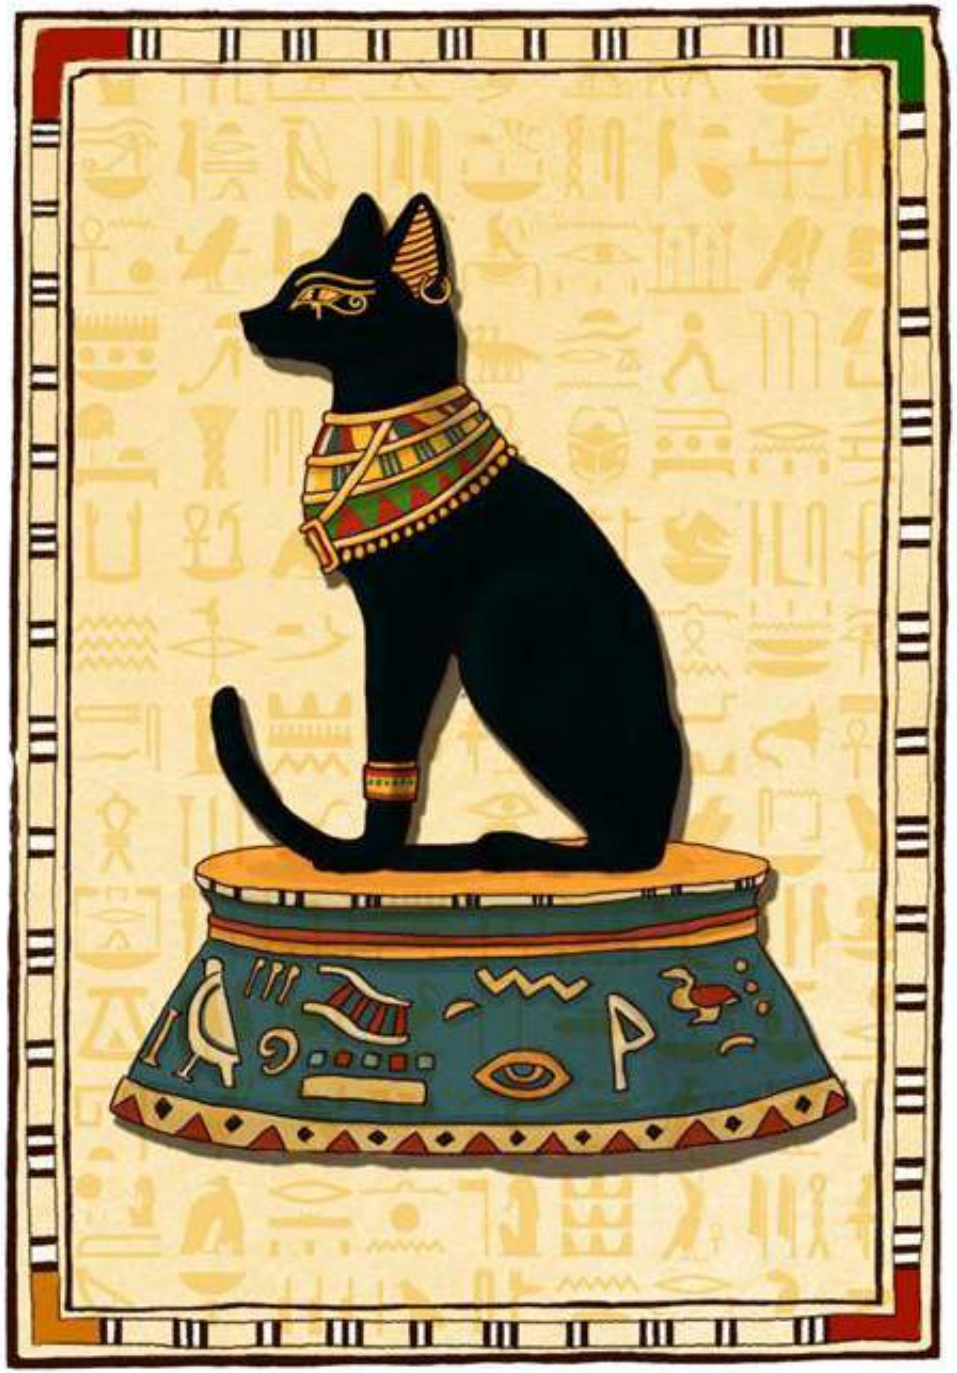

Ancient Egypt is one of the four ancient civilizations, and is located in the middle and lower reaches of the Nile in northeastern Africa. The ancient Egyptian civilization was formed about 6,000 years ago (4000 BC). The Pre-Dynasty period of Ancient Egypt started around 5100 years ago (3100 BC) when Menes established the first dynasty, and ended in 30 BC when Rome conquered the Ptolemaic dynasty. During the over 3000 years of ancient Egyptian civilization period, they built huge pyramids, temples, and obelisks, and established the world’s most advanced medical system.

Cleopatra VII Philopator (69 – August 10 or 12, 30 BC)was the last active ruler of the Ptolemaic Kingdom of Egypt. She was also a diplomat, naval commander, linguist, and medical author. As a member of the Ptolemaic dynasty, she was a descendant of its founder Ptolemy I Soter, a Macedonian Greek general and companion of Alexander the Great. After the death of Cleopatra, Egypt became a province of the Roman Empire, marking the end of the Hellenistic period that had lasted since the reign of Alexander (336–323 BC).
